Introductory note

This introductory note does not form a part of the notice.

The following notice gives notice of the variation and consolidation of an environmental permit.

Variation EPR/GP3130VZ/V002 combines the existing permit into a consolidated permit compliant.

The variation increases the installation boundary, adds two new poultry houses, constructed to best standards and allows for the number of broiler places to be increased to 175,000.

The schedules specify the changes made to the permit.

The status log of a permit sets out the permitting history, including any changes to the permit reference number.
